Update from the Town Deal Team, working to renew and transform Bletchley and Fenny Stratford

July 2024

Town Deal Programme Updates

Public realm improvements consultation

Town Deal Summer Consultation (3 August – 22 September)

Share your views on public realm improvements in Bletchley and Fenny Stratford via the online platform Commonplace.

The Towns Fund and Milton Keynes City Council have launched a consultation to hear your thoughts on proposals that could deliver safer and more accessible pedestrian crossings, new street furniture and planting, safer roads, enable space for shops to extend into the public realm and increase business footfall through a healthier and more vibrant town centre.

The consultation follows from previous engagement with the local community and is open until 22 September. You can attend any of the consultation events below to see the proposals and share your feedback.

Consultation Events

The programme team will attend events to show the proposals and obtain feedback. These include:

- Bletchley Library, 14 August, 10:00 to 15:00
- Duncombe Steet Community House, 2 September, 18:00 to 20:00
- Brunel Centre, 11 September, 12:00 to 15:00
- West Bletchley Council Offices (Whaddon Way), 15 September, 13:00 to 16:00

Additional events are being arranged and will be updated on the Groundbreaking website

Come along to hear about potential changes to the appearance, attractiveness and access to the Queensway and Aylesbury Street as well proposals to better connect Saxon Street to the Bletchley Town Centre and railway station.

MK City Plan 2050

Milton Keynes City Council's new draft Local Plan, the MK City Plan 2050, has been published for consultation.

The planning document sets out how Milton Keynes will change and grow in the years ahead.

Make sure to have your say on the plan. The consultation process ends on 9 October 2024.
